

Day 3. Population growth

BALLOT PAPER A

Select one answer in each table.

3.1 From the viewpoint of efficiency of ensuring population growth, in which direction should efforts be directed to begin with?

| | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 1. Increasing the birth rate | |
| 2. Reducing emigration from Armenia | |
| 3. Increasing immigration to Armenia | |
| 4. All at once | |
| 5. Another observation | |

3.2 First of all, it is better to:

| | |
|--|--|
| 1. Organize the immigration of Armenian emigrants back to Armenia | |
| 2. Organize immigration to Armenia by members of the historical Diaspora | |
| 3. Organize the immigration of foreigners (non-Armenians) to Armenia | |
| 4. Another observation | |

3.3 Choose one of the observations below:

| | |
|--|--|
| 1. Demographic policy should be declared the main direction of the policy implemented in the country, and it should be served by the policies of other spheres. Until now, demographic policy has been perceived as a tool for social support. | |
| 2. The demographic policy should be a set of smaller policies and programs, because having and implementing a comprehensive and unified policy is expensive. | |
| 3. Another observation | |

3.4 Choose one of the observations below:

| | |
|--|--|
| 1. In addition to a repatriation policy, the immigration of foreigners (non-Armenians) should also be organized, helping us solve the problem of population growth. | |
| 2. It is wrong to direct all efforts toward immigration while we have high levels of unemployment and poverty in Armenia. Without solving the problems of economic development and unemployment, immigration will lead to social tensions. | |
| 3. Another observation | |
